

The Met Cloisters

Guided Visit Topics for Adult and College Groups

To request a tour for your group, please complete the Group Visit Request Form at least three weeks in advance.

For additional information or questions, contact us at mettours@metmuseum.org

Highlights Tour: The Met Cloisters

Explore the treasures of The Met Cloisters, the Museum's branch dedicated to the art and architecture of medieval Europe.

Groups may request to focus on a specific medium, such as painting, sculpture, tapestries and textiles, or architecture. Tours can potentially focus on a specific region: France, Northern Europe, or Spain.

Gardens of The Met Cloisters

Available May – September

This tour focuses on horticulture in medieval Europe, correlating artworks, and the architecture of the cloisters surrounding the gardens, including the Cuxa Cloister, “Bonfont” Cloister, and Trie Cloister.

Gallery & Garden Tour

Available May – September

Combining the topics above, explore major works and themes in the collection and the gardens and architecture of The Met Cloisters.